JUNIORS ORGANIZE "CANDLELIGHT COTILLION"

The members of the Junior Class returned to Elmhurst for their third year, confident with the wisdom of two years experience yet increasingly apprehensive as graduation came within a year's reach. This did not lessen their enthusiasm, though, as they decided on "Candlelight Cotillion" as the theme for the Junior Dinner-Dance. The dance, held in May, at the Drake-Oakbrook Hotel, was only the beginning of a flurry of events planned for this Junior Weekend.

SOPHOMORES PLAN A DUTCH TREAT

There was no "Sophomore Slump" for this class. They returned for their second year at Elmhurst filled with great enthusiasm.

This spirit was directed toward initiating the freshmen. Keeping well in mind the treatment they had gotten the year before, they filled the nights with beanie raids and songs of devotion to the Sophomores.

The spirit of freshman initiation carried over into planning the sophomore semi-formal. Dutch wind mills became a frequent sight as the publicity campaign for "A Dutch Treat" continued. Wind mills graced the cafeteria as once again the sophomore semi-formal became a success.

As you can see, it was a great year for the class of '70 under the leadership of Warren Anderson, Rosanne Hotz, Sandra Janowiak, and Mike Marsico.

AND SUCH WAS LIFE AS A FRESHMAN

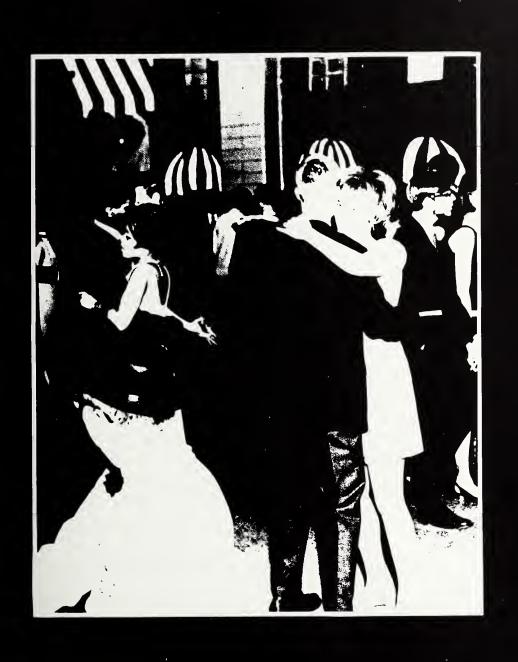

the year

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

These are people who like to eat ...

Guess who's back in town. where's the jello?

Life on the Elmhurst College campus was dominated by a sea of beanies and name tags as freshmen began Orientation Week. Days were filled with placement tests and student groups while upperclassmen kept the nights busy with beanie raids and serenades.

Freshmen became aware of the theme "Chicago" as they viewed and discussed the film "City of Necessity." They were soon given a chance to use this knowledge as the entire Freshmen class toured Chicago.

Gwendolyn Brooks, a noted author and teacher, was here to discuss Maud Martha. The week was brought to a relaxed end with a picnic, games and a chain dance through town.

Now what?

We want you to be happy.

The beginning of it all.

Vell, when I went to college ...

You're kidding!

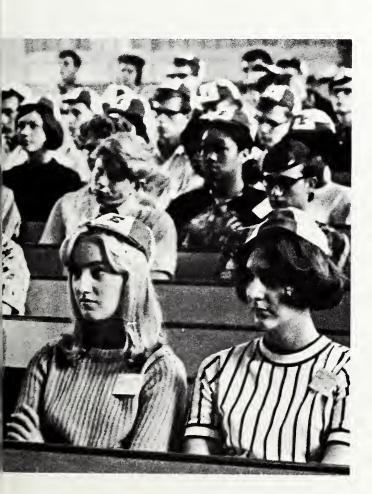

Really it's not all that bad.

Howard Moody

Cultural Life again sponsored a series of lectures and other cultural events to enrich the intellectual and social awareness of the students. The lecture topics ranged from "Penology Today" to "The Arab-Israeli War." Miss Ethel Alpenfels presented a two day lecture series. She discussed anthropology and social behavior. Mr. Eugene Rabinowitch lectured on "Nuclear and International Politics."

The New York Pro Musica presented a concert of the masters. John White directed the young singers and instrumentalists. The Clebanoff Strings presented a two part concert. The first half of the concert was a classic string concert. The last half was an exciting pop concert featuring some of the popular songs of the day.

Cultural Life also sponsored a series of American and foreign films important in the development of cinematic technique. The purpose of the series was to offer entertaining and intellectual enlightenment. A few of the foreign films shown were "The Shop on Main Street," "The Last Laugh," and "The Pawnbroker."

ELMHURST LOOKS TO THE RAINBOW FOR A POT OF FUN

Jays ring out victory.

Leprechaun Magic seemed to rule this year's Homecoming as the dorms were covered with floats to fit the theme of "Look to the Rainbow. Schick found its pot of gold with first place. That night, Friday, October 13, found the campus attending a play entitled "Finian's Rainbow." Of course, the major part was played by a green leprechaun, who, through a strange set of events found himself transformed into human form, all except for his ears, that is. This, however, did not prevent the play from becoming a tremendous success to start this special weekend off right.

As Saturday afternoon rolled around, Elmhurst College was guest to both alumni and visitors. It must have been that Irish luck was with the Bluejays as they beat Lake Forest in the Homecoming Game.

Saturday night found the cafeteria transformed by a wee bit of magic into "Something Sort of Grandish." Homecoming Weekend came to a quiet end with a chapel service on Sunday.

PRAETORS SERVE COLLEGE SOCIALLY

In April, 1967, a group of Elmhurst College men saw the need to form another brotherhood whose purpose would be to serve the college socially. The group of Praetors consisted of 28 original members when they were granted temporary recognition by the college. Since then, they have had two pledge classes which increased the membership to over forty. The Praetors have sponsored The Cryan Shame concert and dance, the Shadows of Night, and the Bonnie and Clyde dance as well as other events. This year they chose their coat-of-arms which was designed by Richard Minhinnick and John Teschner. They also chose "Momentum Aire Perennius" as their motto.

Women Hope To Compete For Intercollegiate Honors

The girls' tennis team was newly inaugurated this spring. It was met with great enthusiasm and hope. For the first time, the girls at Elmhurst showed interest in a competitive sport. The team hopes to play against other colleges next year in regular competition.

TENNIS TEAM HAS A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

With the addition of three new members to this year's net squad, Coach Arends' team looked quite promising as it reentered the C.C.I.W. Conference. The new additions to the team were: the number one player, Rick Wollerman; the number two player, Ted Kissell; and Jim Johnson, at third doubles for the Bluejays. Returning from last year's action were: Mark Hamilton, captain; John Cionca; Bob Kostal; Dave Moyer; Stu Holman; and Ken Wyant, manager.

The first conference match placed the netmen against the somewhat unimpressive Illinois Wesleyan squad. After a resounding 9-0 victory over Illinois Wesleyan, the Bluejays played non-conference Rockford College. The netmen were triumphant by a 7-2 margin at Rockford. The next match pitted the racketmen against Millikin University. Here on the home courts, the Bluejays trounced Millikin by another whitewash, 9-0.

The next opponent was a well-practiced, tough Wheaton College team where the netmen found themselves on the tail end of an 8-1 score. The following week, the Bluejays entertained North Park College where they had another easy-go-of-it 9-0 victory.

On May 10 and May 18, Coach Arends and his team hosted the 22nd Annual C.C.I.W. Tennis Tournament. After two days of solid tennis, the netmen finished third out of nine teams in the conference. Our first doubles, the Wollerman-Kissell combination, won the championship in their bracket, and the second doubles team of Hamilton-Cionca were runners up in their division. Thus, Elmhurst finished third in their conference, slightly behind the powerful Wheaton team that finished second. Augustana College made the tournament a repeat performance as they took the first place for the second year in a row.

This year's team ended up with an overall 4-1 record and a third ranking in the conference.

This year marked the termination of 38 year coaching span for C.C. Arends. At this time let us say "thanks" to Mr. Arends for his long service to the college and to the promotion of the sport of tennis at Elmhurst College.

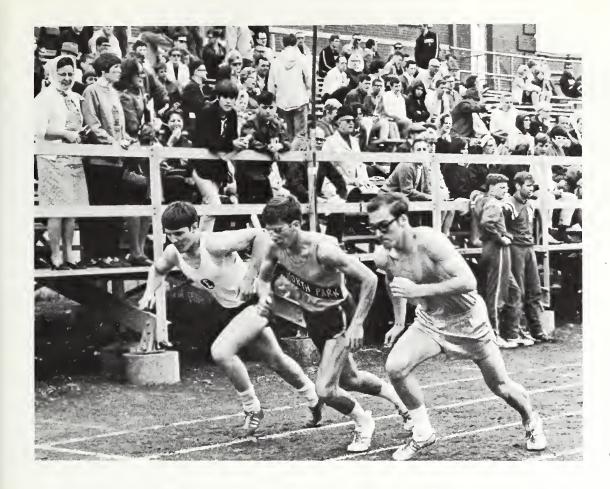

The Elms staff regrets that they were unable to have a picture of the tennis team.

CINDERMEN SET THE PACE IN TRACK

He should've used "Left Guard", too!

One of us is out of step

I wonder if they'll stop the clock if I run out of bounds ...

Mike Radzilowski and Ron Robinson clear the hurdles.

ELMHURST PRESENTS THE 46TH ANNUAL E.I.I.

Red Brennan: "Those sacks look full of rocks!"

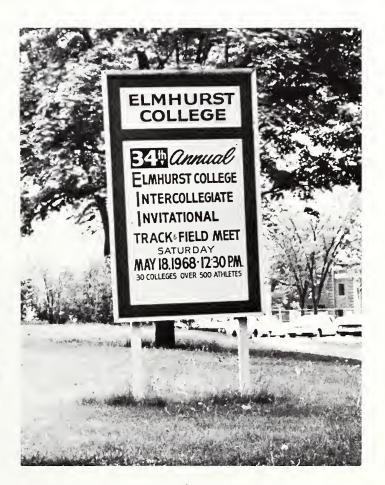

E.I.I. COURT — Marcia Berry, Jan Hootman; Marie Johnson, Queen; Kay Kimball Marinaccio; and Suzy Parks.

There were people there, too.

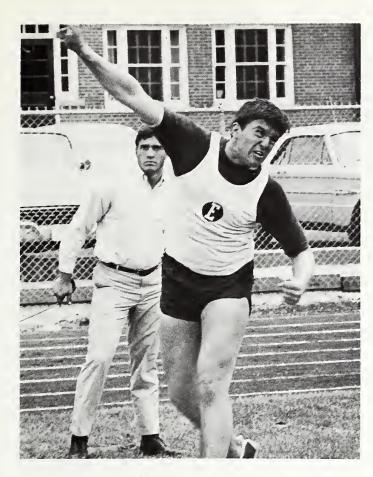

"Let's see Cape Kennedy launch one higher!"

Dennis Beldner: "My Playboy Adviser says broad-jumping is good exercise ..."

Steve Filipski: E-e-e-eaugh!
Snap that picture. This thing is heavy!

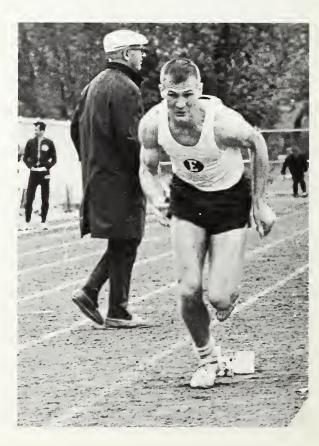

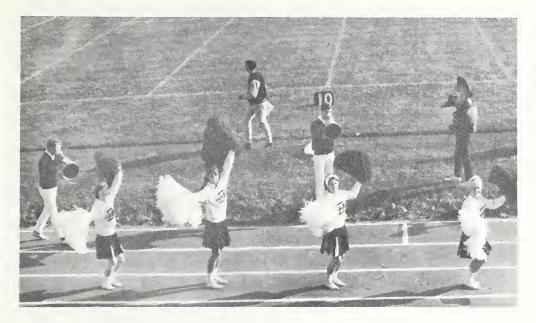

Go, Baby
Tom Schmidt: Alley-oop!

E.I.I. BRINGS OUT ELMHURST'S BEST

DO YOU HAVE THE SPIRIT?

with spirit

with deep feeling

with a smile ... they try desperately to arouse the interest of an all too often minimal number of spectators, but they do try harder — Chris Johnson, Marty Berry, Terry Calkins, Kay Kimball, Susan Cullom, Kathy Pranski.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

To Students and Faculty:

The 1968 Elms staff has made this book one which they hope contains something for all students, something to glance at now and years from now when one's own picture will not be recognized. We hope, too, that this history will be used to a full degree for enjoyment and reference.

This is the product of many hours of work by a staff of dedicated people. Despite an abundance of disappointments, their spirit still endured to bring you the end result of this yearbook. It is hoped that this book will reflect the progressive nature of our campus. As an added attraction we have the pleasure of bringing you the recording complied by Tom Tueber, The Sounds of Elmhurst College. This was included in the belief that a college is more than words and pictures. Nothing can capture the mood of the campus better than a recording of its sounds. A very special thank you is extended to Tom for this excellent recording.

Appreciation is also extended to all the devoted members of the staff, especially the section editors. And what is a yearbook without its photographs? Koehne Studios was a great help in bringing you many of the pictures. Our fine campus photographers cannot be overlooked: Don Baumann and Harold Warp did an excellent job. Special thanks is given to Harold for all the long hours patiently spent in the dark room. Behind every yearbook is a man who supervises and is always there to help. To you, Richard Wedemeyer, is given the greatest thank you of all.

This book is now given to you, the students of Elmhurst College. We hope you will find here those memories of the past year which were most precious to you.

Sincerely, Shirley Rosner Editor
